Decided to go to law school and the next LSAT's ...

By K W F

Decided to go to law school and the next LSAT's were in a month. I only had four weeks to prepare and had been out of school for a 25 years. No test prep classes were available so I decided to try these books. After a few weeks my averages on the practice tests improved to over 160. If you decide to try these just be sure to review your wrong answers.

The Best

By crashvandicoot

These books are the most inexpensive source of real LSATs to study from. In addition, they also contain several sample comparative reading comprehension passages and questions, which were introduced in June 2007. I haven't seen a better source for practice of these types of questions.

Some will say that these tests vary significantly from the more recent tests. While I agree with this statement, the underlying foundation of logic and reasoning is the same.

Simply put, these books are a must-have for any LSAT prep.
