CIRCLE OF DEATH (THE DEPRAVED CLUB) (VOLUME 2) BY COLLEEN MASTERS PDF

I heard the horrific stories about the man they call Devlin Vile, but when I realized there was a chance his club had taken my sister, I searched for him anyway. I had to know what happened.

His devilish charm and sexy exterior almost made me forget the truth--he's an outlaw guilty of unspeakable crimes, a god in his own right, fiercely loyal to his club and no one else...

The moment he told me he wanted me I should've been terrified. When he said he wanted all of me--however he pleased--I should've ran far away, but I quickly learned that the President of the Circle of Death Motorcycle Club doesn't take "no" for an answer.

This 65,000 word Contemporary Romance Novel is a standalone (no cliff hanger) novel in The Depraved Club series. Content suitable for adults, contains violence, strong themes, and sexual content.

Not for me

By Amazon Customer

I was given an ARC copy in return for an honest review -

I wanted to like this story, I truly love reading about the MC worlds. This book was a bit too unrealistic for my taste and the ending SPOILER ALERT not happy that after finding each other they lose each other...not cool...

I did enjoy reading this story

By J N

This book seemed to be off to a fairly strong start and definitely grabbed my attention, but it didn't continue at that level throughout. I really wish I could give it a higher rating, but it just didn't quite meet the needed expectations. Overall, I did enjoy reading this story, but I believe these 2 authors could have produced a better quality book -- pieces of this storyline should have been more fully developed (instead of just "dropping in" 1 or 2 sentences in hope of explaining things or trying to support details).

Parts of this book were just TOO unrealistic and fake-- such as the instantaneous outpouring of feelings & "soulmatedness" between Devlin and Logan during their first really intimate moment (24 hours after they first meet) AND the way that Logan suddenly becomes a "badass" who fairly easily attacked and killed her 2 captors near the end.

Also, I really appreciated the attempt to convey the power, respectfulness and value of a good D/s relationship -- unfortunately, the details shared during the book seemed too random, underdeveloped and shallow to support the more intense level of D/s that Devlin seemed to need.

Next run they make will probably be to Disneyland, the Circle of Death (and Depraved) are NOT to be believed as described.

By Seekermoon

I would have given this book a 3 Star "It's OK" rating if the description hadn't been so misleading and I don't want readers to think they are getting something that is absolutely not there.

This story could easily be picked up by Pixar and made into a PG-13 movie. There is nothing depraved about it, there isn't any steamy sex, and if you're looking for even the merest touch of BDSM, it's not in here.

The authors remind me of young boys (although they are female) sneaking a peek into a National Geographic magazine to see women's bosoms, giggling all the while to themselves. This seems to be their idea of depraved.

It's a lovely little love story that you have read in about a million forms one time or another, ABSOLUTELY NOTHING nothing that you are led to believe is here. I hate to think this way, but I have a feeling the other reviewers must be friends and/or relatives of the authors.
