Not a Great Horror Novel - Neither Plot, Characters, Nor Grammar

By Rev Gurley

Edwina is a disturbing story of a young girl who seems to bring death and destruction to every foster family who takes her in. And while I usually love horror novels, this one is simply too disturbing.

Another reason for a 2 star review is the grammar mistakes throughout. I'm not sure if there is a translation problem or poor editing, but the mistakes took away from the story and the characters.

I'm sorry, but I cannot recommend Edwina to others who want a good horror novel to curl up with on a dark and rainy night.

Scary Book

By nana g

This book was scary. It was a very good follow up to "Five, Six Grab Your Crucifix" and gave you insight into who Edwina really was before she ended up in "Five, Six". I really love Willow Rose's books, they make me wonder what is next.
