Small price to pay for BIG changes!

By Mustbef8

I liked Dave Willis "Marriage" page on Facebook & really enjoyed his inspirational posts. When he posted about his iVow book, I went and bought it. My marriage was in crisis for about the past 6 months after 6 years of some small issues & a one very big issue of not effectively communicating with my husband. My Husband & I were both guilty of getting off the path that God intends for all of us, so in this terrible time I turned to God, started reading & prayed harder than I ever had in my life. I started making small changes every day like those quoted in Dave's book. I started to feel better than ever emotionally & started having a more positive outlook toward everyone & everything. Then a miracle happened... I noticed little by little, that my husband's heart started to soften & he had started coming around to me & our family. We still have a long ways to go, but we are both now on the same page & starting Christian guidance counseling. We are now both committed to having a stronger & healthier marriage. I am living proof that God can & does change marriage, even in the most dire situations... Thank you Dave Willis for your great ideas & giving us hope!!! I believe you have been called to do Gods work here on Earth & bringing people back to the way God intended marriage to be. God Bless!

If you want your passion to return to your marriage. read this book.

By Donna wright

This book is incredible. I read it aloud each morning to my husband and then we would discuss what we heard. We are like most married couples, searching for things to communicate about, needing guidance on a deeper relationship and a longing to have a marriage that is satisfying and passionate. I encourage all married couples to read this book together. We will read it again together in the future, for I know we will need to be renewed again.

So practical!

By Cathy E

The ideas in this book are based on strong biblical principles, applied so insightfully to marriage in today's world. My husband and I are reading a chapter together each day and discussing the questions at the end, and we have been married for 36 years!
