Clay regresa a Los Ángeles durante las vacaciones de Navidad. En el aeropuerto lo espera su novia Blair, por la que siente una profunda indiferencia. Un escueto mensaje de su madre sobre la mesa de la cocina y la nueva criada lo aguardan en casa. Enseguida intenta ponerse en contacto con Julian, su huidizo mejor amigo, que ha abandonado la universidad y coquetea con la heroína, pero no consigue encontrarlo. Sin nada mejor que hacer, se reincorpora a sus viejas rutinas: un frenesí de fiestas interminables, sexo sin miramientos y montañas de coca.

Retrato de una sociedad en la que cada adolescente tiene su dealer y en la que las emociones se miden en fajos de billetes, Menos que cero es la primera novela del autor de American Psycho. Escrita cuando Bret Easton Ellis contaba solo veinte años, Menos que cero narra, con un estilo gélido y contundente, las andanzas de un grupo de adolescentes a la deriva en los años ochenta, y sorprendió a la crítica para convertirse inmediatamente en obra de culto.

Desidia y Apatía

By Oscar L. Vazquez

Clay regresa a su casa en el exclusivo barrio de Mulholland en Los Angeles para pasar las fiestas navideñas. Ya instalado vuelve a tomar contacto con su desestructurada familia de padres divorciados con una madre distante, un padre ausente y unas hermanas indiferentes que más parece que le molestará su presencia en la casa. Se reencuentra con sus conocidos de antaño, poco a poco van reapareciendo Blair, Trent, Julian, Kim, Muriel, Alana, Rip & Spin, adolescentes e hijos como el de prósperos empresarios, directores y productores de cine con mucho tiempo y dinero que gastar. Durante un mes, Clay se embarca en un maratón de fiestas, alcohol, drogas y promiscuidad, centros comerciales, cines y encuentros ocasionales con productores y actores. De Hollywood a Malibú, de Palm Spring a Westwood y de Colony a Wilshire su vida se convierte en una sinrazón de encuentros, conversaciones banales y de comportamientos erráticos con personas que fácilmente lo olvidan todo o casi siempre ignoran algo. El chico extraña su antigua vida, recuerda con nostalgia cuando se sentía parte de una familia donde había amor, cariño, comprensión y calor humano. En la soledad de su habitación busca un milagro en los canales religiosos de televisión mientras lo más degradante de sus amigos se le revela a cada paso que da.

Novela corta, intensa y dura donde el autor recreando la vida de un grupo de adolescentes de clase media alta nos introduce en una sociedad donde el desarraigo familiar, el vacío existencial, la drogodependencia, los desajustes emocionales y unas vidas sin objetivos están a la orden del día. Trama donde en cada página la droga, el alcohol y el sexo son los únicos componentes de la vida de una adolescencia entregada a una total desidia como parte fundamental del estilo de vida que llevan. Lectura rápida, cruda y directa fácil de leer.
