Some incomplete, confusing directions!!

By valley shopper

Disappointing lack in some directions! I am an experienced knitter - have been knitting for over 60 years. Granddaughters' American Girl dolls provide an opportunity to be creative!

HOWEVER, the ENCHANTED KNITS FOR DOLLS HAS PROBLEMS. The Magical Dragon outfit, pg. 104 is confusing and VERY frustrating. Tail base, right side.... "purl to end" means a row of how many stitches??? There is also Tail Base - left side. I have knitted to this point... and now I will be on my own to create the outfit!

I have tried a sample with other yarn, and I will just do my thing since I CANNOT MAKE SENSE OF HER DIRECTIONS!

While the illustrations are gorgeous, I question whether anyone knitted from the printed directions BEFORE the book was published!!

brilliant ideas but not carefully edited

By Audrey J Langer

I love the ideas for the patterns but I bought a pack of Lion brand Bons bons, the specified yarn to knit the gnome girl outfit and there isn't even enough yarn of one color to knit the part of the front that calls for that color. And upon carefully reading I see that you switch colors for the back of the top, a strange thing which is not shown in the pictures. I will have to buy different yarn and try again if I want to make this and I find that very disappointing, I was knitting to gauge so the designers didn't pay attention to how much yarn the project takes.

I have Nicky Epstein's first book and was really happy to get this one

By jstsayin4u

I have Nicky Epstein's first book and was really happy to get this one. I have several little girls in our family and they are thrilled when I give them their own wardrobe for their dolls. This is great for Christmas and birthday presents.
