About the Author

The Benedictine Nuns of Perpetual Adoration are a monastic community with a ministry dedicated to prayer. Founded by Mother Mary Felber in 1874, the nuns now live under a Rule and a Prioress, and are strongly devoted to the practice of Eucharistic Adoration. Their monasteries are located in Missouri, Arizona, and Wyoming, and their dwellings are united under a central Congregation. The Benedictines support themselves by working with altar bread, correspondence, and handcrafts. Their largest monastery, located in Clyde, Missouri, houses seventy-four sisters, and also serves as a central administration and health care facility. In addition to St. Michael the Archangel, the Benedictines have also published Spirit and Life magazine and run the Monastery Creations gift shop.

Our bible study group has been doing a study on the capital sins and this book has been a great addition. I highly recommend it

By ssqueakert

This book goes into more detail about each of the capital sins. It really helps understand what these really mean, versus whatever our misconceptions may be. Our bible study group has been doing a study on the capital sins and this book has been a great addition. I highly recommend it! (whether doing a study or not!)

A Spiritual Treasure

By Catholicpoet

Great little book published in 1959, it is a great guide to the seven capital sins and gives great spiritual advice for avoiding these sins!
