Great reading but hard on the eyes

By MT

I had an earlier edition of this book and liked it so much I ordered a new one for a relative. Unfortunately, the publisher has shrunk the size and the print is far too small. If you can read it, it's great. But if you can't stand the strain of tiny print, I'm afraid you'll have a hard time with this edition.

A must for Bible students

By Pal Turley

Who's Who in the the New Testament (Routledge) is a must for Bible students of all denominations. It contains concise, excellently written biographies of all the major personalities featured in the New Testament as well as most of the obscure ones. The contents have been thoroughly researched and meticulously compiled. I loved it and cannot wait to purchase Who's who in the Old Testament.
